

witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the Clerk of such court; and the justice of the peace before whom the accused is brought for trial shall inform him seasonably of his right to demand a trial by jury.

Since this section gives no right of appeal from the circuit court, no appeal lies if that court had jurisdiction. Fact that traverser is not tried at term of court to which papers are transmitted, does not defeat court's jurisdiction. Starliper v. State, 126 Md. 297.

Conspiracy.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 43. 1912, sec. 40. 1904, sec. 34. 1888, sec. 31. 1884, ch. 266.

41. An agreement or combination by two or more persons to do or procure to be done any act in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute between employers and workmen, shall not be indictable as a conspiracy, if such act, committed by one person, would not be punishable as an offense; nothing in this section shall affect the law relating to riot, unlawful assembly, breach of the peace, or any offense against any person or against property.

This section referred to in deciding that a labor union, such as the United Mine Workers of America, is suable in the federal courts and their funds subject to execution. United Mine Workers v. Coronado Coal Co., 259 U. S. 386.

For cases involving the common law crime of conspiracy, see Garland v. State, 112 Md. 90; Lanasa v. State, 109 Md. 605.

Picketing of stores to compel owners to employ colored help is not in the nature of a trade dispute, and may be enjoined. Green v. Samuelson, 168 Md. 426.

1927, ch. 651.

42. Every person convicted of the crime of conspiracy shall be liable to be punished by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the jail or the Maryland House of Correction or the Maryland Penitentiary, for not more than ten years, or both, in the discretion of the Court; provided that all actions or prosecutions hereunder shall be commenced within two years after the commission of said offense.

1937, ch. 439.

43. No person shall refuse to testify concerning the crime of conspiring to commit any of the offenses set forth in Section 27 of this Article, sub-title "Bribery", or set forth under the sub-title "Gaming" of this Article or set forth under the sub-title "Lotteries" of this Article, and any person shall be a competent witness and compellable to testify against any person or persons who may have conspired to commit any of the aforesaid offenses, provided that any person so compelled to testify in behalf of the State in any such case, shall be exempt from prosecution, trial and punishment for any and all such crimes and offenses of which such person so testifying may have been guilty or a participant or a conspirator therein and about which he was so compelled to testify.

Convict Made Goods.

1937, ch. 17.

44. No goods, wares or merchandise manufactured or produced, wholly or in part, or mined by convicts or prisoners of other States, Territories or the District of Columbia, except convicts or prisoners on parole or probation, shall be shipped into this State to be sold on the open market, or sold to, or exchange with, an institution of this State or with any of its political divisions. Any person, firm, association or corporation violating
