

Fraud—Debtors.

1927, ch. 522.

213. Any person who, with intent to intimidate a debtor, shall make use of any form in imitation of any form in use in any Court of this State or in simulation of legal process by sending or serving the same on said debtor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Ten Dollars or more than One Hundred Dollars for each offense.

Fraud—Transfers.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 186. 1924, ch. 470.

214. No transfer ticket or written or printed instrument giving or purporting to give the right of transfer to any person from a conveyance operated upon one line or route of any carrier of passengers to a conveyance operated upon another line or route of the same carrier of passengers, or upon the line or route of any other carrier of passengers, shall be issued, sold or given except to a person lawfully entitled thereto. Any person who shall issue, sell or give such a transfer ticket or instrument aforesaid to a person not lawfully entitled thereto, and any person not lawfully entitled thereto who shall receive, with intent to use for passage, or who shall use or offer for passage any such transfer ticket or instrument, or shall sell or give away such transfer ticket or instrument to another with intent to have such transfer ticket used or offered for passage, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not less than $10.00 or more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense by a fine of not less than $100.00, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Fraud—By Hirers.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 187. 1912, sec. 161. 1904, sec. 144. 1888, sec. 107. 1872, ch. 423.

215. Every hirer of a personal chattel of the value of twenty dollars and upwards, who shall secrete, make away with, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same, with intent to defraud the owner thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding double the value of the article disposed of, and imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, or either, at the discretion of the court.

1927, ch. 533, sec. 187A.

216. Any person who shall, with intent to defraud, hire, lease or rent a motor vehicle, the hire or charge for which is based either in whole or part on the distance such motor vehicle travels while in the custody of the person hiring, leasing or renting the same, knowing that the hubdometer or other mechanical device attached to such motor vehicle, or any part thereof, for the purpose of registering the distance such motor vehicle travels, does not correctly register the distance such motor vehicle travels, or who shall knowingly deceive any person who hires, leases or rents any motor vehicle as to the distance such motor vehicle has traveled during the period it was so hired, leased or rented, and shall make a charge for the use of such motor vehicle based wholly or in part upon the inaccurate distance,
