1914, ch. 779, sec. 247.

373. Every employer or manufacturer, whether a person, firm or corporation, contracting for the manufacture in whole or in part, altering, repairing or finishing of any articles in a tenement or dwelling house, or in any room or workshop outside of his, their or its own establishment, or giving out of materials from which they or any part of them are to be manufactured, altered, repaired or finished, in a tenement or dwelling house, or in any room or workshop outside of his, their or its own establishment, shall keep a register of the names and addresses, plainly written in English, of the persons to whom such articles or materials are given to be so manufactured, altered, repaired or finished or with whom such employer or manufacturer has contracted to do the same, and shall issue with all such articles or materials a label bearing the name and place of business of such employer or manufacturer legibly written or printed in English.

It shall be the duty of every employer or manufacturer and of every person contracting for the manufacture, altering, repairing or finishing of any articles or giving out any such articles or materials to ascertain from the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics whether or not the room or apartment in which such articles or materials are to be manufactured, altered, repaired or finished is licensed as provided in this Act; and none of the said articles nor any material from which they or any part of them are to be manufactured, altered, repaired or finished shall be given out or sent to any person to be so worked upon in any room or apartment of a tenement or dwelling house or workshop outside of his, their or its own establishment which is not licensed as provided in this sub-title.

The register mentioned in this section shall be subject to inspection by any inspector of the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, and a copy thereof, as well as such other information in regard thereto as such inspector may require shall be furnished upon demand.

See notes to sec. 375.
