

whom the machine gun was sold, loaned, given or delivered, or from whom received. Upon demand every manufacturer shall permit any marshal, sheriff or police officer to inspect his entire stock of machine guns, parts, and supplies therefor, and shall produce the register, herein required, for inspection. A violation of any provision of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

1933, ch. 550, sec. 350H.

428. Every machine gun now in this state shall be registered in the office of the Secretary of State, on June 1, 1933, and annually thereafter. If acquired hereafter it shall be registered within 24 hours after its acquisition. Blanks for registration shall be prepared by the Secretary of State, and furnished upon application. To comply with this section the application as filed must show the model and serial number of the gun, the name, address and occupation of the person in possession, and from whom and the purpose for which, the gun was acquired. The registration data shall not be subject to inspection by the public. Any person failing to register any gun as required by this section, shall be presumed to possess the same for offensive or aggressive purpose.

1933, ch. 550, sec. 350-I.

429. Warrant to search any house or place and seize any machine gun possessed in violation of this sub-title, may issue in the same manner and under the same restrictions as provided by law for stolen property, and any court of record, upon application of the State's Attorney, shall have jurisdiction and power to order any machine gun, thus or otherwise legally seized, to be confiscated and either destroyed or delivered to a peace officer of the state or a political sub-division thereof.

1933, ch. 550, sec. 350J.

430. If any provision of this sub-title or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the sub-title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this sub-title are declared to be severable.

1933, ch. 550, sec. 350K.

431. (Uniformity of Interpretation.) This sub-title shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

1933, ch. 550, sec. 350L.

432. (Short Title.) This sub-title may be cited as the Uniform Machine Gun Act.<sup>1</sup>
