

October, 1919, along with its recommendations for the location of said institution in the country, together with any option which they may secure for the purchase of land and probable cost of buildings, and also any prospective sale of present properties.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 630. 1918, ch. 303, sec. 6.

725. Said institution shall be non-sectarian, but the girls committed to said institution shall receive regular religious instruction for which the said Board shall make provision.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 631. 1918, ch. 303, sec. 7. 1922, ch. 215.

726. All legacies now held and existing, and all legacies that may hereafter be given by persons dying after June 1, 1918 and the acquisition by the State of Maryland as aforesaid of the property and rights of said now existing corporation, the said Maryland Industrial School for Girls, and all appropriations by the State of Maryland and the City of Baltimore and the several counties of the State of Maryland made or contracted for, and gifts, grants, and devises heretofore and hereafter to be made, given, granted, devised or bequeathed to the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls or to the said Maryland Industrial School for Girls, either under or by said name, or under its former name of the Female House of Refuge shall survive and inure to the benefit of and vest in the Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls as appointed under the provisions of this sub-title.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 632. 1918, ch. 303. 1920, ch. 142, sec. 8.

727. For each white female minor committed to the care and training of the Montrose School for Girls from the City of Baltimore or any one of the counties in the State, the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury the sum of one hundred and eighty dollars ($180.00) per annum, for the care and training of such white female minor, and the remaining amount required for the care and training of such white female minor shall be paid from the Treasury of the State, and the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay unto the State Treasurer the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per annum, for each white female minor paroled and under the control of the Montrose School for Girls, for supervising said white female minors. The expense for care, training and supervision of all white female minors in the Montrose School for Girls and on parole and under its control shall be a charge upon each county and City of Baltimore, committing such white female minor or minors to the Montrose School for Girls, as hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls to furnish to the County Treasurer and to the Comptroller of the City of Baltimore, having white female minors committed to the Montrose School for Girls a quarterly statement giving the number of white female minors and the name of each white female minor from and charged to such county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, and the cost of maintenance and supervision due from said county and the City of Baltimore for such white female minor or minors. The Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls shall certify to the State Comptroller on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, the amount not previously
