

shall be confined for an additional term, in the discretion of the Court, not exceeding one-half of the entire term for which such prisoner had been sentenced prior to his escape or attempted escape; or such prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Court, be subject to any penalties which may be by law provided for prisoners escaping or attempting to escape from the institution to which he had previously been committed.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 726. 1917, ch. 4, sec. 8.

813. All expenses and disbursements incurred, under Section 810, by the Board of Correction, for the guarding, transportation, lodging, feeding, clothing and medical and other care and attention of prisoners working under Sections 806 to 813 for the State Roads Commission, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury available therefor and not otherwise appropriated, or out of any moneys appropriated for such purpose; in the latter event such payments to be made, from time to time, on the order of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Council of Defense, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, such orders to be directed to the Comptroller, who shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount thereof, as in law provided. The several counties, cities and towns are, respectively, authorized and empowered to make any and all appropriations, assessments and levies necessary to enable them, respectively, to pay the expenses and per diem payments which Sections 806 to 813 authorize or direct them to pay, in case Section 809 is availed of by them. The per diem payments which are to be made by the State Roads Commission, under Section 811, shall be paid out of that Commission's appropriation.

1937, ch. 214.

814. The Board of Correction is hereby empowered in its discretion to apply for and receive from the Federal Government or any Board, Bureau, Commission, Department or other Agency thereof any funds by way of grant or loan that may be offered to be used in the establishment and/or maintenance of the State penal and reformatory institutions under its jurisdiction on such terms as said Board shall approve, provided there be no requirement to apply said funds or any part thereof in contravention of any provision of Maryland law relating to such institutions, and provided further that no such funds shall be accepted by way of loan without the approval of the Board of Public Works first having been obtained and that in no event shall the credit of the State of Maryland or any political sub-division thereof be involved or pledged to secure the return of said loan and that the repayment thereof with the interest, if any, shall only be made out of the accrued net profits earned in the operation of the State Use System established under Section 762 of this Article when and if any such net profits shall accrue.
