4. The Attorney General shall receive a salary of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) per annum. He is authorized to appoint six assistants, one of whom he shall designate and who shall be known as Deputy Attorney General, two of whom shall be known as Assistant Attorneys General, one of whom shall be known as Special Assistant Attorney General for the Comptroller of the Treasury, one of whom shall be known as Special Assistant Attorney General of the State Roads Commission, and the other of whom shall be known as Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund. The Attorney General is also authorized to appoint such additional assistants, special attorneys and law clerks as may from time to time be authorized in the Budget. The Deputy Attorney General, the Assistant Attorneys General, the Special Assistant Attorney General for the Comptroller of the Treasury, the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission, the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund, and all other Assistant Attorneys General and special attorneys shall be practicing lawyers of the State of Maryland in good standing, each of whom shall hold his respective office during the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Deputy Attorney General shall receive an annual salary of six thousand dollars ($6,000); the Assistant Attorneys General shall each receive an annual salary of fifty-five hundred dollars ($5,500); the Special Assistant Attorney General for the Comptroller of the Treasury shall receive an annual salary of fifty-five hundred dollars ($5,500); the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars ($5,000), and the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars ($4,000). All of the salaries above provided shall be payable monthly. The salary of the Special Assistant Attorney General for the Comptroller of the Treasury shall be paid by the Comptroller of the Treasury, out of funds available to him for administration of the collection of taxes. The salary of the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission shall be paid by the State Roads Commission and the salary of the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall be paid by the State Accident Fund, as provided by the Budget Bill. The Deputy Attorney General and the Assistant Attorneys General and the law clerks shall each perform such duties as the Attorney General may from time to time assign to them, and the Attorney General is hereby authorized to assign to them and each of them the performance, subject to his direction and control, of any of the duties required of him by law. The Special Assistant Attorney General for the Comptroller of the Treasury, the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission and the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall perform such duties for the Comptroller of the Treasury, the State Roads Commission and the State Accident Fund, respectively, as the Attorney General may assign to them, and each shall be required to perform such duties subject at all times to the direction and control of the Attorney General.
