

Electors of President and Vice-President.

197. Date of election of electors of president and vice-president.
198. Qualification of voters.
199. Election of electors, how conducted.
200. Vacancies in college of electors, how filled.
201. Meeting of electors.

Representatives in Congress.

202. Election of congressmen.
203. How vacancies in Congress filled.

Congressional Districts.

204. State divided into six congressional districts.
205. Counties composing first district.
206. Counties and wards of Baltimore City composing second district.
207. Wards of Baltimore City, composing third district.
208. Wards of Baltimore City composing fourth district.
209. Counties and wards of Baltimore City composing fifth district.
210. Counties composing sixth district.
211. Separate election returns.
212. This article not to affect offenses committed before its adoption, but pre-existing law to apply to such offenses.

Election Expenses—Corrupt Practices.

213. Application of this sub-title.
214. Definition of terms and who shall act as treasurer, political agents, etc.
215. Political committee to have a treasurer, and all funds must pass through him. Bond. Penalty.
216. Contributions; proviso.
217. Limitations upon expenses; proviso.
218. Purposes for which expenditures may be made.
219. Account or statement of treasurer or political agent.
220. Account or statement to be filed by candidates; consequences of failure.
221. False entry in statement.
222. Statements to be filed and open to inspection; evidence.
223. Who is guilty of corrupt practices; penalty.
224. Publishing or distributing pamphlet, etc., concerning candidate without name of person or corporation.

225. Corrupt practice by corporations; penalty.
226. Inquiry into corrupt practices; trial; certification of finding.
227. Power of courts under sec. 225. Testimony.
228. Duty of State's attorney. Testimony.

Primary Elections.

229. Candidates nominated by direct vote; authority of party conventions; state conventions elected by people, certain candidates nominated by; candidates for president, requirements of; expenses; qualifications of voters; ballots, arrangement and marking of; canvass and return of votes; instruction to delegates to national convention; uninstructed delegation; vacancies in delegation.
230. When to be held; notices.
231. Voting places.
232. To what extent general election law controls.
233. Sets of ballots and number of ballot-boxes; ballots of different parties printed on paper of different color; declaration of party affiliation; new registry books; transcribing of names; correction of books; watchers; examination of books; explanation to voters; "declined" voters; persons becoming of age after close of registration and before election; change of party affiliation.
234. Registration books.
235. Ballots, how prepared and printed; certificates filed by candidates; publication of candidates; fees; special provisions for certain officers; expenses, how borne.
236. Certificate for nomination of candidates for Congress; fee.
237. Deposit with Supervisors, not returned although name of candidate not on ballot.
238. Ballots, arrangement of names on; provisions for general elections prevail; watchers and challengers; effect of marking more names than there are persons to be voted for.
239. Baltimore City, primaries in; party affiliation or "declined" voter.
240. Additional salaries for supervisors, etc.
241. Nominations for State offices and U. S. Senator; how delegates to vote in convention; tie vote.