

1937, ch. 77, sec. 29R. 1939, ch. 638, sec. 29R.

59. At the close of each calendar year, beginning with the close of the year 1942, in which there has been a primary or general election, the Supervisors of Election shall examine the entries of the several precincts for the purpose of eliminating the names or persons who have died or have removed from the city. It shall also be the duty of said Supervisors at the close of each calendar year, beginning with the close of the year 1944, to direct that the registration cards or forms of registered voters who have not voted at least once at a primary, general or special election in the five preceding calendar years, shall be taken from the original and duplicate files and placed in a transfer file, and a printed postcard notice of the fact, with the information that his or her eligibility to vote has been cancelled by reason of his or her failure to vote for five calendar years, and that the voter must re-register in order to be eligible to vote, shall be sent to the last known address of such voter.

1937, ch. 77, sec. 29S.

60. Except as otherwise provided in Section 41 or in Sections 50 to 59, inclusive, or in any section of Article 33 heretofore enacted, the provisions of said Article 33 relating to registrations and elections shall apply in every particular to Baltimore City.

If any provision of Section 41 or of Sections 50 to 60, inclusive, shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of any other provision of any of said sections.

Secs. 30-60 cited in Binswanger v. Whittle, 176 Md. 149.

1939, ch. 128, sec. 29T.

61. In Harford County, when in the opinion of the Supervisors of Elections it becomes necessary to rewrite any of the registration books by virtue of the fact that said books have become so worn or the lettered subdivisions thereof have become so filled with names that it is not practicable to further use said books, the names of all persons now registered on such registration books, except those who have not voted at a primary, general or special election in the six preceding calendar years shall be transcribed on new registration books to be provided by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Harford County, with the approval and consent of the County Commissioners of Harford County, both as to the procurement of the new books and the manner in which the names are to be transcribed, subject to the provisions of sections 61 and 62.

The work of transcribing the names of said persons to the new books shall be done under the supervision and direction of the said Supervisors of Elections by persons of intelligence who write a clear legible hand, easy to read, or in the event that said books are rewritten on a typewriter, indelible ribbon must be used, and the machines must be operated by persons who are skilled in the operation thereof, one-half of whom shall be selected from each of the two leading political parties of the County. The persons so selected and the compensation they are to receive must be approved by the County Commissioners of Harford County, and the work of transcribing said names to the new books must be completed by January 1, in any year preceding an election.

In the case of persons who are registered on the present registration books, who have not voted at least once at a primary, general or special
