

An. Code, 1924, sec. 202. 1912, sec. 187. 1910, ch. 741, sec. 160J (p. 123). 1931, ch. 508.

240. For the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this sub-title, the supervisors of elections of the several counties, in addition to the annual salary of one hundred dollars each allowed them by Section 3 of Article 33, shall be entitled to receive an additional compensation, to be paid by the county commissioners of the several counties, amounting to twenty-five per cent. of the salary now received by them under said section in the counties, and such further sum for expenses incurred in the performance of the duties imposed on them by this sub-title as the several boards of county commissioners shall allow. The supervisors of elections of Baltimore City, in addition to the sum allowed to them by Section 8 of Article 33, as compensation for their clerk and messenger and other temporary assistance, such as is mentioned in said Section 8 of said Article 33, shall be allowed the further sum of fifteen hundred dollars; and the supervisors of elections of the several counties shall be entitled to receive for such additional clerical or other assistance as they may need for the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this sub-title, a sum not exceeding twenty-five per cent. of the present salary for that purpose in the counties. All of said expenses shall be paid by the mayor and city council of Baltimore and the county commissioners, respectively, in precisely the same way as the salaries of the said supervisors of elections of Baltimore City and in the several counties, and as other expenses of every kind mentioned in said Sections 3 and 8 of said Article 33 are provided to be paid; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply to Howard County.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 203. 1912, sec. 188. 1910, ch. 741, sec. 160K (p. 123). 1912, ch. 2, sec. 160K. 1939, ch. 201.

241. Every candidate for the nomination for a State office; that is to say, an office filled by the vote of all the registered voters of the State of Maryland, shall be nominated by conventions, the delegates to which shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of this article by the direct vote of the registered voters belonging to the political party of which the candidate is a member, and whose nomination for such office he is seeking; the ballots in such cases shall contain the names of the candidates for public office, delegates to party conventions and managing bodies, executives or executive committee to be voted for as provided in the foregoing sections, and in addition thereto and in the same manner the names of all candidates for state offices, who have duly qualified to have their names placed upon such ballot in the manner provided by this article.

The candidate receiving the highest vote in any county or legislative district shall receive the vote of the delegates from such county or legislative district in the State Convention, and the Supervisors of Elections in Baltimore City and the counties of the State shall issue to the delegates elected to each State convention of such parties, a certificate of election, which certificate shall also contain the result of such primary election balloting, and such certificate shall be accepted as the credentials of such delegation in such convention of such party and as the instructions of the voters of such party in such county and legislative district of Baltimore City as to how the votes of such delegation are to be cast, and duplicates of such certificate shall be mailed at once by said Supervisors of Elections to the chairman of the State Central Committee of the State of each of the
