

the vote has been by mail. If there be more than one ballot in the ballot envelope all shall be rejected. At primary elections the ballot shall not be counted unless it is a ballot of the political party with which the voter is affiliated. Ballots printed "Mail Ballots" may be marked by any kind of pencil or ink.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 233. 1912, sec. 227. 1918, ch. 78, sec. 227.

312. When all the ballots have been voted as aforesaid the Supervisors of Elections shall proceed to canvass and count the same in accordance with the provisions relating to the canvass and count of votes in such city or county by judges and clerks of elections. The Supervisors of Elections shall appoint such clerks as may be necessary to keep the tallies for each precinct or district in which ballots are counted and canvassed by them, and the tallies and the returns shall all be transmitted to the Board of Canvassers as hereinafter provided. The Supervisors of Elections upon completing the count shall make the statements or returns of the result as required to be made by judges of elections for every precinct or election district in which mail ballots have been counted, and at the end of such return shall sign a certificate that the same is correct in all respects. If any Supervisor shall decline to sign such return the same action shall be taken by him as is required to be taken by a judge of election in a similar case.

The Supervisors of Elections shall then proceed to sit as a Board of Canvassers, shall canvass the returns made by them of mail ballots counted by them as aforesaid and shall canvass and add up such votes in the total of votes canvassed and counted by them. The Board of Canvassers shall not conclude the canvass of votes at any election until after the time for counting and canvassing votes by mail as aforesaid shall have expired and until such mail ballots as they shall receive from the Supervisors of Elections shall be counted and canvassed as aforesaid, but in all other respects the Board of Canvassers for the several counties and for Baltimore City shall proceed as now required by law.

313. Whenever the condition which resulted in the issuing of the proclamation hereinbefore provided for terminate, it shall be the duty of the Governor, as soon as is convenient and proper, by proclamation, published as provided in Section 304 of this Article, to end the suspension of the election laws, and the provisions of this sub-title shall become inoperative until such time as a new proclamation of suspension is issued.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 235. 1912, sec. 229. 1918, ch. 78, sec. 229.

314. Whenever possible, the existing election laws and the provisions of this sub-title shall be construed together in such a way as to promote the purpose for which this sub-title is intended, to the end that the citizens of the State shall not be deprived of their right or opportunity to vote because of service, as herein provided, for their State or the United States. Whenever the provisions of this sub-title are enforced at any election the Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City shall be entitled to receive in addition to the compensation now paid to them the further sum of $200 each for every such election, and the Supervisors of Elections of the several counties in addition to the compensation now allowed them shall each be entitled to receive the additional sum of $25 each for every
