

This section applied to statutes providing that persons residing in one county but doing business in another, may be sued in either. Henderson v. Maryland, etc., Ins. Co., 90 Md. 49.

This section has no application to municipal corporations. Phillips v. Baltimore, 110 Md. 436.

1937, ch. 74.

16. The word child or its equivalent shall be construed to include any illegitimate child, except in matters of inheritance, descent or distribution of real and personal property, unless such a construction would be unreasonable.

Cited in construing Art. 93, Sec. 314. Rowe v. Cullen, Daily Record, Dec. 21, 1939.