88. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this Article shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional and invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or section thereof so found unconstitutional and invalid.

1929, ch. 471, sec. 71.

89. (Violations and Penalty.) Any person violating the two preceding sections, or who shall alter, loan or transfer a license to him issued, as herein provided, and any person while fishing under a license issued to another person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of $10 for each offense and the costs, and such person's license shall be void and shall be surrendered to such justice of the peace, and by such justice immediately sent to the State Game and Inland Fish Commission; and in default of payment of such fine and costs, such person shall stand committed to the county or city jail, as the case may be, for a period of one day for each dollar of said fine and costs which shall be unpaid. All fines recovered under this Article shall be immediately forwarded by the justice of the peace to whom they are paid, to the Comptroller of the State or to the State Game and Inland Fish Commission, together with a statement of the cause for which said money shall have been collected; the cost of such statement is hereby fixed at fifty cents and hereby made a part of the costs of prosecution; and said Comptroller shall credit the moneys so received to the Conservation Fund.

90. (Sizes of Game or Fresh Water Fish.) No person shall catch or in any manner take or kill, sell, offer to buy or sell, or expose for sale, or have in possession any fish caught in non-tidal waters of this State of any size less than herein provided: Bass, large or small mouth, 10 inches; Pike or Pickerel, 14 inches; Trout, brook, brown or rainbow of any species of the salmon and trout family (except Squeteague), 7 inches, measuring in each case from the tip of the nose to the end of the caudal fin or tail, and any other fish mentioned in Section 58 of a size or weight prohibited in said section.
