

sary, is hereby appropriated to the said State Board of Forestry, to be expended by said board in the acquisition of the property and in the accomplishment of the purposes specified in this section.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 33. 1912, sec. 22. 1914, ch. 823.

30. The State Department of Forestry shall have the right and power to condemn lands, earth, gravel, stone, timber, or materials, or any improvements in the name of the State, under Article 33A, title "Eminent Domain," of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland as passed in Chapter 117 of the Acts of 1912 when such action is necessary for carrying out the purposes of any Legislative Act, or for advancing the aims of forestry, and the work of the State Board of Forestry, and they may pay all costs and expenses thus incurred out of any surplus moneys standing to the credit of the Forest Reserve Fund, not otherwise appropriated; nothing herein contained shall apply to the City of Baltimore.

As to condemnation, see art. 33A.

1927, ch. 352.

31. The State Department of Forestry shall have power and authority to accept the use of lands to be used for auxiliary State Forest Reserves and to enter into such agreements with the owners thereof as may be necessary, and said lands shall be subject to all laws, rules and regulations now or hereafter created governing State Forest Reserves; provided, however, that no monies appropriated to the State Department of Forestry shall be used or expended on said auxiliary State Forests for permanent improvements or for any purpose other than supervision, opening of trails and the building of temporary structures to make such lands available for campers and visitors, and for the protection of the lands from fire and trespass.

1935, ch. 239.

32. The State Department of Forestry shall have power and authority to accept gifts, donations or contributions of land from the Federal Government, or any agency or agent thereof; to enter into agreements with the Federal Government, or any agency or agent thereof, for acquiring by lease, purchase or otherwise, such lands as the State Department of Forestry may deem suitable for State forests or State parks; to make expenditures from any funds not otherwise obligated for the management, development and utilization of any such lands; to sell or otherwise dispose of products therefrom; and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Any revenue received from such lands shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Forest Reserve Fund, and disbursed in accordance with the provisions of Section 15 of this Article; provided, however, that not less than 50% of the gross revenues derived from such lands shall be devoted to the payment of any obligations for the purchase thereof incurred under the provisions of this Section, until such obligations are fully paid.

33. The State Department of Forestry shall have power and authority to make rules and regulations for the maintenance of order, safety or sanitation (including traffic regulations), and for the protection of trees
