

1937, ch. 331, sec. 20.

20. The Commission shall establish such delegations and committees as it deems advisable, in order that they may confer and formulate proposals concerning effective means to secure intergovernmental harmony, and may perform other functions for the Commission in obedience to its decisions. Subject to the approval of the Commission, the member or members of each such delegation or committee shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Commission. State officials or employees who are not members of the Commission on Intergovernmental Co-operation may be appointed as members of any such delegation or committee, but private citizens holding no governmental position in this State shall not be eligible. The Commission may provide such other rules as it considers appropriate concerning the membership and the functioning of any such delegation or committee. The Commission may provide for advisory boards for itself and for its various delegations and committees, and may authorize private citizens to serve on such boards.

1937, ch. 331, sec. 21.

21. The Commission shall report to the Governor and to the Legislature within fifteen days after the convening of each regular legislative session, and at such other times as it deems appropriate. Its members and the members of all delegations and committees which it establishes shall serve without compensation for such service, but they shall be paid their necessary expenses in carrying out their obligations under this sub-title. The Commission may employ a secretary and a stenographer, it may incur such other expenses as may be necessary for the proper performance of its duties, and it may, by contributions to the Council of State Governments, participate with other States in maintaining the said Council's district and central secretaries, and its other governmental services.

1937, ch. 331, sec. 22.

22. The Committees and the Commission established by this sub-title shall be informally known, respectively, as the Senate Co-operation Committee, the House Co-operation Committee, the Governor's Co-operation Committee and the Maryland Co-operation Commission.

1937, ch. 331, sec. 23.

23. The Council of State Governments is hereby declared to be a joint governmental agency of this State and of the other States which cooperate through it.

1937, ch. 331, sec. 24.

24. The Secretary of State shall forthwith communicate the text of this measure to the Governor, to the Senate, and to the House of Representatives, of each of the other States of the Union, and shall advise each legislature which has not already done so that it is hereby memorialized to enact a law similar to this measure, thus establishing a similar commission, and thus joining with this State in the common cause of reducing the burdens which are imposed upon the citizens of every State by governmental confusion, competition and conflict.
