

An. Code, 1924, sec. 12. 1922, ch. 29, sec. 11 (p. 43).

11. Any law enacted at the Session of 1922 of the General Assembly of Maryland which amends or enacts any provisions of law relating to any officer, board, commission, department or other governmental agency abolished, superseded or affected by this Act, or to the powers or duties thereof, shall be taken and held as applying to the officer, board, commission, department or other governmental agency to whom or to which the rights, powers, duties, obligations or functions of the aforesaid agency so abolished, superseded or affected are transferred, in whole or in part, or who or which succeeds to the same; and this shall be the case whether such law or this Act is enacted first.

1.

The Executive Department.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 13. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 43).

12. The head of the Executive Department shall be the Governor of the State, who in addition to the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions now or hereafter conferred by law, shall also have supervision and direction over the officers and agencies hereby or hereafter assigned to the Executive Department.

Extradition.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13A.

13. (Definitions.) The term "Executive Authority" includes the Governor, and any person performing the functions of Governor in a state other than this state. The term "State", referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory of the United States of America.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13B.

14. (Fugitives from Justice; Duty of Governor.) Subject to the provisions of this sub-title, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the Governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this State.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13C.

15. (Form of Demand.) No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the Governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under Section 18, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the Executive Authority of the demanding
