

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13H.

20. (Manner and Place of Execution.) Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this sub-title to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13-I.

21. (Authority of Arresting Officer.) Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13J.

22. (Rights of Accused Person; Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus.) No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the Executive Authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall be first taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county or the City of Baltimore in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13K.

23. (Penalty for Non-Compliance with Preceding Section.) Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the Governor's warrant, in willful disobedience to the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both, the trial of said case to be conducted in the Circuit Court of the County, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, wherever the offense shall have been committed.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13L.

24. (Confinement in Jail When Necessary.) The officer or persons executing the Governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered, may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to
