

death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or Justice of the Peace in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor of this state.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13P.

28. (Extension of Time of Commitment, Adjournment.) If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the Governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or Justice of the Peace may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed sixty days, or a judge or Justice of the Peace may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in Section 27, but within a period not to exceed sixty days after the date of such new bond.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13Q.

29. (Forfeiture of Bail.) If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge or Justice of the Peace by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13R.

30. (Persons Under Criminal Prosecution in This State at Time of Requisition.) If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending, the Governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the Executive Authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13S.

31. (Guilt or Innocence of Accused, When Inquired Into.) The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the Governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the Governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13T.

32. (Governor May Recall Warrant.) The Governor may recall his warrant of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

1937, ch. 179, sec. 13U.

33. (Fugitives From This State; Duty of Governor.) Whenever the Governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation or parole in this state, from the Executive Authority of any other state, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the
