The State Board of Agriculture and the Regents of the University of Maryland.<sup>1</sup>

An. Code, 1924, sec. 101. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 56).

143. The heads of this department shall be the State Board of Agriculture and the Regents of the University of Maryland, constituted and organized as at present; and all the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions conferred by any and every provision of law upon said Board or upon the said Regents, or upon both or either, shall continue unaffected by this Act; it being the intention that this Act shall in no way affect any of the provisions of law relating to the said Board or the said Regents, or both, except as herein provided.

University of Maryland, an agency of the State, cannot be sued for breach of contract for erection of dormitory after its erection, the funds for such purpose having been exhausted. Univ. of Md. v. Maas, 173 Md. 554.

As to agriculture, see art. 2A.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 70.

144. The Regents of the University of Maryland are hereby authorized and empowered on behalf of said University and for its proper use and benefit to accept irrespective of the amount or value thereof any donation, gift, grant or devise from any individual, association, society or corporation, or from the United States Government, or any authorized branch, board, commission, bureau, agency, division, sub-division or department thereof.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 102. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 56).

145. On January 1, 1923, all the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions of the State Board of Forestry, as the same are set forth in Article 39A of the Annotated Code, title "Forestry," or in any other provisions of law, shall be transferred to and thereafter be exercised and performed by the Regents of the University of Maryland, as the lawful successors to said State Board of Forestry, to the same extent and effect as if the said Regents of the University of Maryland had been named in the provisions of said Article or other provisions of law as the body upon whom the said rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions were conferred. Thereupon the terms of office of the members of the said State Board of Forestry shall cease and be at an end and the said Board shall be and stand abolished.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 103. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 58).

146. On January 1, 1923, all the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions of the State Geological and Economic Survey Commission, as the same are set forth in sections 19 to 24 inc. of Article 91 of the
