

disbursements as it deems proper, and each of said boards and agencies shall make no expenditures except for purposes so approved by the Board of Public Works, which shall in each case determine the time for such annual estimates to be submitted.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 120. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 71).

164. All moneys remaining in the hands of any of said boards and agencies at the close of each year, after the payment of the expenditures authorized and approved under the preceding section hereof, shall be annually accounted for and paid into the general treasury of the State. The Board of Public Works shall determine the time or times for such annual accounting in each case, and, if they find it necessary, the said Board may authorize a working cash balance to be carried over to the credit of any of said boards or agencies.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 121. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 71).

165. On January 1, 1923, the Board of Public Works shall determine which of the boards and agencies mentioned in Section 162 can discharge its duties, or part of its duties, with equal or greater efficiency and greater economy at the office of the Commissioner of State Employment and Registration, and thereupon, after such notice as the said Board may find necessary, it shall be the duty of each such board or agency so notified thereafter to maintain its office and discharge its duties, or to discharge such part of its duties as the Board of Public Works may so determine, at the office of the said Commissioner of State Employment and Registration; and the said Commissioner shall provide the necessary quarters, means, facilities, paraphernalia and clerical assistance therefor.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 122. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 71).

166. The position of any secretary or other employee of any such board or agency which the Board of Public Works may determine to be unnecessary because of the carrying out of the provisions hereof, shall be and stand abolished; and the Board of Public Works shall cause the necessary steps to be taken for the termination, as soon as practicable, of any lease of any office or office space which, because of the carrying out of the provisions hereof, the said Board may determine is no longer necessary.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 123. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 72).

167. Except as herein otherwise provided, the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions of the boards and agencies mentioned in Section 162 hereof shall in no way be affected by the terms of this Act.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 124. 1922, ch. 29 (p. 72).

168. In addition to the boards and agencies mentioned in Section 162 hereof, any and all other boards and agencies, whose duty or part of whose duty it is to examine or license applicants for admission to practise or engage in any profession, trade or calling, and which may be created at this or any subsequent session of the General Assembly, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, to the same extent as if the same had been specifically mentioned in Section 162.
