

(c) He was subject to detention in such State, being then his legal domicile (personal service of process having been made) based on legal proceedings there pending to have him declared of unsound mind; shall, on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed thereto.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 25. 1912, sec. 24. 1918, ch. 150, sec. 24.

25. (Procedure.) Whenever the executive authority of any State demands of the executive authority of this State, any fugitive within the purview of Section 24 and produces a copy of the commitment, decree or other judicial process and proceedings, certified as authentic by the Governor or Chief Magistrate of the State whence the person so charged has fled, with an affidavit made before a proper officer showing the person to be such a fugitive, it shall be the duty of the executive authority of this State to cause him to be apprehended and secured, if found in this State, and to cause immediate notice of the apprehension to be given to the executive authority making such demand, or to the agent of such authority appointed to receive the fugitive, and to cause the fugitive to be delivered to such agent when he shall appear. If no such agent appears within thirty days from the time of the apprehension, the fugitive may be discharged. All costs and expenses incurred in the apprehending, securing, maintaining and transmitting such fugitive to the State making such demand, shall be paid by such State. Any agent so appointed who receives the fugitive into his custody shall be empowered to transmit him to the State from which he has fled. The executive authority of this State is hereby vested with the power on the application of any person interested, to demand the return to this State of any fugitive within the purview of this sub-title.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 26. 1912, sec. 25. 1918, ch. 150, sec. 25.

26. (Limitation.) Any proceedings under this sub-title shall be begun within one year after the flight referred to in this sub-title.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 27. 1912, sec. 26. 1918, ch. 150, sec. 26.

27. (Interpretation.) This sub-title shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those States which enact it.
