

twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for the first offense, and for any subsequent offense shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Provided, however, that nothing contained in Sections 212-218 shall apply to any common carrier or any carrier for hire only.<sup>1</sup>

Common Drinking Cup.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 208. 1912, sec. 177H. 1912, ch. 156.

219. The use of the common drinking cup, an undoubted source of communication of infectious diseases, is hereby prohibited in all public places within this State and upon all railroad trains carrying passengers and all boats carrying passengers while in this State, and the State Board of Health shall have full authority to establish such reasonable rules and regulations to make this prohibition effective as in their judgment seems wise and proper.

All persons and corporations failing to observe the provisions of this section or the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health made in relation thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon proof and conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars and costs for each offense, provided that any person or persons, firm or corporation, shall have the right of appeal to the Public Service Commission from the provisions of this section.

Cold Storage—Food Products.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 209. 1912, sec. 177-I. 1916, ch. 163.

220. For the purpose of this sub-title, "cold storage" shall mean the storage or keeping of articles of food at or below a temperature above zero of 45 degrees Fahrenheit in a cold storage warehouse; "cold storage warehouse" shall mean any place artificially cooled to or below a temperature above zero of 45 degrees Fahrenheit, in which articles of food are placed and held for 30 days or more; "articles of food" shall mean fresh meat and fresh meat products and all fish, game, poultry, eggs and butter.<sup>2</sup>

An. Code, 1924, sec. 210. 1912, sec. 177J. 1916, ch. 163.

221. No person, firm or corporation shall maintain or operate a cold storage warehouse without a license so to do issued by the Director of the State Board of Health. Any person, firm or corporation desiring such a license shall make written application to the Director of the State Board of Health for that purpose, stating the location of the warehouse. The Director of the State Board of Health thereupon shall cause an examination to be made of said warehouse and, if it be found by it to be in a proper sanitary condition and otherwise properly equipped for its intended use, it shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to operate the same as a cold storage warehouse during one year. The license shall be issued upon payment by the applicant of a license fee of twenty-five dollars to the treasurer of the state.

<sup>1</sup>Sec. 2, ch. 312, acts of 1935, provides that invalidity of any part of said act shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of said act.

Sec. 3 of said ch. 312 repealed all laws inconsistent therewith to extent of such inconsistency.

<sup>2</sup>Sec. 3 of act 1916, ch. 163, provides that said act may be cited as "The Uniform Cold Storage Act." Sec. 4 repeals all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with act 1916, ch. 163.
