

An. Code, 1924, sec. 220. 1912, sec. 177T. 1916, ch. 163.

231. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this sub-title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished for the first offense by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) and for the second or any subsequent offense by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 221. 1912, sec. 177U. 1916, ch. 163.

232. This sub-title shall be so interpreted and construed as to effect its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.¹

Common Towels.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 222. 1920, ch. 524.

233. The use of common towels, an undoubted source of communication of infectious diseases, is hereby prohibited in all public places within this State, and on all railroad trains carrying passengers, and all boats carrying passengers while in this State; and the State Board of Health shall have full authority to establish such reasonable rules and regulations to make this provision effective as in their judgment may seem wise and proper.

All persons and corporations failing to observe the provisions of this section, or the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health made in relation thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs for each offense.

Tomatoes.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 223. 1920, ch. 408, sec. 1.

234. On and after June 1, 1920, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to can or prepare in any way at any factory or plant of any kind in this State, any tomatoes or tomatoes with puree with which there is used or introduced into the can any liquid substance of any kind whatever except the juice or juices arising from the said tomatoes themselves after they have been properly peeled, trimmed, cored and prepared for canning as food.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 224. 1920, ch. 408, sec. 2.

235. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to can or prepare in any way any goods or vegetable product purporting to be canned tomatoes or canned tomatoes with puree, or having anything on the label or advertised in any way likely to deceive prospective customers with believing that they are canned tomatoes or canned tomatoes with puree, except in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section.

¹ Sec. 3 of act 1916, ch. 163, provides that said act may be cited as "The Uniform Cold Storage Act." Sec. 4 repeals all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with act 1916, ch. 163.
