

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section, and any permittee hereunder who shall violate any of the conditions of his permit or any of the rules or regulations adopted by the said Maryland Board of Pharmacy in pursuance of the power hereby conferred, shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than fifty ($50) dollars for each offense, and each and every day such violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense; and, upon conviction of a permittee hereunder, his permit shall also forthwith be revoked and become null and void.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to those operating retail pharmacies or drug stores.

All permit fees collected under the provisions of this section shall be used by the Maryland Board of Pharmacy, so far as may be necessary, for the enforcement of the provisions of this sub-title.

1935, ch. 205, sec. 2.

260. If any provision of this sub-title, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the sub-title, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 240. 1912, sec. 190. 1904, sec. 153. 1902, ch. 179, sec. 16.
1906, ch. 585, sec. 17. 1931, ch. 148, sec. 240.

261. Nothing in this sub-title shall be so construed as to prevent, or in any way make unlawful, or interfere with, the sale or display by general merchants, of any proprietary or patent medicines; or the sale by such general merchants of commonly used household or domestic remedies, in original, unopened packages, or farm remedies or ingredients for spraying solutions, in bulk or otherwise, provided the said household or domestic remedies are clearly labeled with the ordinary name of the article or articles contained therein and the name of the manufacturer or distributor thereof, or the sale by such general merchants of doses of household or domestic remedies to be consumed upon the premises.

262. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, distribute, vend or otherwise dispose of any drug, medicine, or pharmaceutical or medicinal preparation by means of any public exhibition, entertainment, performance, or carnival, commonly known as "medicine shows" and "patent medicine shows"; and it shall be unlawful for any person to throw, cast, deposit, drop, scatter, or leave, or cause to be thrown, cast, deposited, dropped, scattered or left any package, parcel or sample of any drug or medicine in or upon any house, porch, veranda, portico, or any other part of any house or building or in or upon any lawn, yard or court without the consent of the owner or occupant thereof, or upon any street or public highway within this State.

Any person violating any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.¹

¹ Sec. 2, ch. 357, acts of 1935, reads as follows: If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.
