

shall be in default after sixty days from the date of levy and said levy shall bear interest at the rate of one (1) per cent. a month from and after the time said levy is in default.

1927, ch. 641, sec. 348F.

398. Said municipal authorities shall provide for each and every property abutting upon a street or right-of-way in which under Sections 393-410 a water main or sanitary sewer is laid, a water service pipe or sewer connection which shall be extended, as required, from the water main or sewer to the property line of the abutting lot, said service pipe or sewer connection to be constructed by and at the sole expense of said authorities. When any water main or sewer is declared by said authorities complete and ready for the delivery of water or the reception of sewage, every abutting property owner, after due notice, shall make connection of all spigots or hydrants, toilets and waste drains, with said water main or sewer within such reasonable time as may be prescribed by said authorities. Where the aforesaid drains or fixtures do not exist, or are of a nature which in the judgment of said authorities are improper or inadequate, satisfactory equipment or arrangements shall be installed. All cess pools, drains and privies on properties connected with a sewer shall be abandoned and left in such way that they cannot again be used or injuriously affect the public health, said disposition to be determined by said authorities; and all wells that are found by said authorities to be polluted or a menace to health shall likewise be abandoned and closed. Any violation of the provisions of this Section shall be a misdemeanor, punishable under Section 407.

1927, ch. 641, sec. 348G. 1936 (Sp. Sess.), ch. 41.

399. For the purpose of providing funds to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds, issued pursuant to Section 395, in whole or in part, and for maintaining, repairing and operating water supply, sewerage, drainage and refuse disposal systems constructed under the provisions of Sections 393-410, including overhead expense and proper depreciation allowance, municipal authorities shall have full power and authority to make such service rates as they may deem necessary, chargeable against all properties served by a water main, sewer, drain or refuse disposal system under their ownership. Service rates shall be subject to change from time to time as said authorities deem necessary. Said rates shall be payable at such times, and shall be subject to such penalties for non-payment, as said authorities may determine, and they shall be collectible against the owner of the property served, in the same manner as other debts are collectible at law.

1927, ch. 641, sec. 348H.

400. Municipal authorities shall be empowered and authorized to formulate and cause to be effective such rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for maintaining and operating water supply, sewerage, drainage and refuse disposal systems under their control, and may formulate and put into effect plumbing regulations, which shall govern the installation and alteration of all water supply, plumbing and drainage arrangements on private property. Said authorities may require that no water supply, plumbing or drainage work be done on any private property without the receipt of a permit and without the payment of such charge
