

(d) Such per diem and mileage and such other incidental expenses necessarily connected with said board shall be paid out of the fund of the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners and not otherwise.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 390. 1920, ch. 666, sec. 12.

452. Chiropractic practitioners shall observe and be subject to all State and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases; and any and all matters pertaining to public health, reporting to the proper health officer the same as other practitioners. Provided that nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to authorize or permit any chiropractic practitioner to execute or register certificates of birth or death.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 391. 1920, ch. 666, sec. 13.

453. The secretary-treasurer of the said board shall give bond in such sum and with such sureties as the board may deem proper. Upon sufficient proof of the Governor of the inability or misconduct of a member of the board, said member shall be dismissed and the Governor shall appoint as his successor some licensed Chiropractor practicing in this State who shall be a graduate of a different school than those represented on the board.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 392. 1920, ch. 666, sec. 14.

454. Persons licensed to practice Chiropractic under the laws of any other State having equivalent requirements of this sub-title, may, in the discretion of the board, be issued a license to practice in this State without examination, upon payment of the fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars as herein provided.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 393. 1920, ch. 666, sec. 15.

455. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice Chiropractic, or any person who shall buy, sell or fraudulently obtain any diplomas or license to practice Chiropractic, whether recorded or not, or who shall use the title Chiropractor, D. C., or any word or title to induce belief that he or she is engaged in the practice of Chiropractic without first complying with the provisions of this sub-title, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this sub-title, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than one (1) year, or both, at the discretion of the court. All subsequent offenses shall be punished in like manner. Nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to interfere with any other method or science of healing in this State.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 394. 1920, ch. 666, sec. 16.

456. It shall be the duty of the several prosecuting or district attorneys of this State to prosecute all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title. It shall be the duty of the secretary-treasurer of said board, under the direction of said board, to aid said attorneys of this State in the enforcement of this sub-title.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Sec. 17 of ch. 666 of acts of 1920 repeals all acts in conflict with said ch. 666.
