

An. Code, 1924, sec. 126. 1912, sec. 109. 1918, ch. 200, sec. 109.

139. Any citizen of Maryland shall have the privilege of submitting to the State seed laboratory samples of agricultural seeds for test and analysis, subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the State Board of Agriculture; provided that said Board may by such regulations fix the maximum number of samples that may be tested or analyzed free of charge for any one citizen in any one period of time and fix charges for tests or analyses of samples submitted in excess of the number tested free of charge.¹

An. Code, 1924, sec. 127. 1912, sec. 111. 1918, ch. 113, sec. 1.

140. It shall not be lawful for any corporation, co-partnership or individual, engaged in the canning or preserving of any fruit or vegetables, to sell or otherwise dispose of the seed of any fruit or vegetables obtained in the canning or preserving of any fruit or vegetables to any dealer in garden seed or other person under circumstances where the same may be resold for the purpose of planting or propagation, unless said corporation, co-partnership or individual shall sell said seed under an absolute guarantee as to purity and germinating properties.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 128. 1912, sec. 112. 1918, ch. 113, sec. 2.

141. It shall not be lawful for any corporation, co-partnership or individual to sell or otherwise dispose of any such seed for planting purposes.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 129. 1912, sec. 113. 1918, ch. 113, sec. 2A.

142. The provisions of Sections 140-143 shall not be interpreted as preventing the use or preservation of any edible materials produced in connection with a crop grown for legitimate seed purposes.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 130. 1912, sec. 114. 1918, ch. 113, sec. 3.

143. Whoever shall violate the provisions of Sections 140-143 shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense and to a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each subsequent offense.

Eggs.

1935, ch. 375, sec. 130A.

144. No person, firm, association or corporation shall sell, offer or expose for sale, advertise or in any other manner represent for sale as fresh, hennery, new laid, best, direct from the farm, or under any word, words, sign, figures, symbols or descriptions of similar import, any eggs that are not fresh, with such "tolerances" as are hereinafter in this section allowed for fresh eggs. For the purpose of this sub-title, no eggs shall be deemed fresh that do not meet the following standards of quality for fresh eggs: air cell, not over one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) inch deep, localized and regular; white, firm and clear; shell, sound and clean; yolk, no visible defect or blemish, and with no visible germ development. The final determination as to meeting the standards of quality for fresh eggs shall be made by candling.
