

after (except that companies of foreign countries may transmit their statements of business, other than that done in the United States, at any time prior to the following first of July), which statements must be in the form and state the particulars required by the blanks prescribed by the insurance commissioner; and he may require at any time statements from any company doing business within this state, or from any of its officers or agents, on such points as he may deem necessary and proper to elicit a full exhibit of its business and standing; all of which statements herein required must be certified by the signatures and oath of the president or vice-president of the company, with that of the secretary or actuary. No company having neglected to file a statement required of it within the time and manner prescribed shall do any new business, after notification by the insurance commissioner, while such neglect continues; and any company neglecting for thirty days to make and transmit any statements required, shall forfeit one hundred dollars for each day's neglect.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 31. 1922, ch. 492, sec. 32.

31. (Publication of Abstracts of Annual Statements.) The insurance commissioner shall annually publish once a week for three consecutive weeks in a daily newspaper published in the City of Baltimore, an abstract of the annual statement of each insurance company, mutual or stock, doing business in this state, except domestic companies having their principal office in one of the counties of this state, in which case said publication shall be in the county where the principal office of any such company is located. The actual cost of such publication by the commissioner shall be taxed against and collected from the companies whose statements are so published by him. Each of said companies except such mutual companies as are excepted under the provisions of Section 159 shall, in addition to said publication by the commissioner, publish said abstract of its annual statement in another paper in Baltimore City, for three consecutive times. The commissioner and the company shall cause the first appearance of the publication of the abstract of each said company prior to the first day of April. The commissioner shall, upon the payment of a fee of one dollar, furnish a certified copy of such abstract so published, to any person applying therefor.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 32. 1924, ch. 562.

32. (Publication of Revocation of Licenses.) Whenever any license, permit, or qualification granted or issued by the Insurance Commissioner to any Insurance Company, Insurance Broker, Broker's Solicitor, Agent or Solicitor has been revoked or suspended, the Insurance Commissioner may immediately publish the fact of the revocation of such license or permit and the date of such revocation in some daily newspaper, published in the City of Baltimore, and by such other advertisement or publication as the Insurance Commissioner may deem proper.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 33. 1922, ch. 492, sec. 33. 1927, ch. 394, sec. 33.

33. (Conditions Precedent to Beginning Business.) No person shall act as agent or solicitor in this State for any insurance company in any manner whatever relating to insurance risks, until all the provisions of this article relating thereto have been complied with, and there has been granted by the insurance commissioner a certificate of authority or license
