

ing any contracts of insurance or re-insurance or in any renewal or renewals of any such contracts, or to deliver any policy or bill to any assured or collect any premium of insurance in his own name or in any other manner than in the name of and as the agent of said broker. If any such license shall be issued for any portion of any year, a ratable sum shall be charged therefor up to the first day of May next succeeding the date of such application. The broker for whom any such solicitor shall act under such license may place any insurance procured by or through said solicitor in any company and in the same manner and to the same extent as if said business had been procured or negotiated directly by said broker.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 70. 1922, ch. 492, sec. 67.

92. (Non-Resident Brokers.) Any duly authorized broker of any other state of the United States or of the District of Columbia, residing outside of this state, may negotiate any contract of insurance within this state or on property located within this state to the same extent, and on the same terms and upon the payment of the same fees as are or shall be required, demanded or exacted by any such state or the District of Columbia, or from citizens of this state negotiating or transacting a like business in any such state or the District of Columbia.

93. Any person, individual, firm, corporation or association of whatever character offering, contracting, giving, selling, or in any manner tendering as part of or in connection with his or its service or business, any insurance policy or policies of any character or description, shall be deemed to be transacting the business of insurance, and shall come within the jurisdiction of the State Insurance Department of Maryland, and be subject to all the laws of Maryland relative to insurance as provided in this Article.

Every policy of insurance as hereinbefore mentioned must have plainly stamped upon its face the full amount of premium paid for said insurance.

Any person, individual, firm, corporation or association violating any of the aforesaid sections or sub-sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to all the fines, penalties, restrictions and inhibitions as set forth in Section 94 of this Article.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 71. 1922, ch. 492, sec. 68.

94. (Penalties for Violation of Sections 88, 90, 91 and 92.) Any person who shall use or exercise within this state the business or occupation of an insurance broker or broker's solicitor, as the case may be, without having procured a license therefor, as required by sections 88, 90, 91 and 92 of this article, and each person who employs, and each member of any partnership, and each officer of any corporation having authority to employ agents, clerks and solicitors, who shall employ or permit the employment or receive or accept the services of any broker's solicitor until a license in each such case shall have been duly issued as provided in section 91, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each such offense, one-half for the use of the state and the other half to the informer.

For abolition of informer's fees, see art. 38, sec. 3.
