

the advance payments as provided in this section to applicants, if the organization is not completed within one year shall be filed with the insurance commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary, and if the purposes of the association conform to the requirements of this article and all provisions of the law have been complied with, the insurance commissioner shall so certify, and retain and record (or file) the articles of incorporation, and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing said association to solicit members as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of said certificate from the insurance commissioner, said association may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly payment in accordance with its table of rates as provided by its constitution and laws and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. But no such association shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate, nor pay or allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least one thousand dollars each, and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians, and certificates of such examinations have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such association nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated, nor until there has been submitted to the insurance commissioner, under oath of the president and secretary or corresponding officers, of such association, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of stated periodical contributions which shall be sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligation, contracted, when value for death benefits, upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality, as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress August 23, 1899, or any higher standard at the option of the association and for disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience and for combined death and permanent total disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent. per annum, nor until it shall be shown to the insurance commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer or corresponding officer of such association that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment as herein provided per one thousand dollars of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars, all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants, and no part of which may be used for expenses.

Said advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held, in trust and, if the organization is not completed within one year, as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants. The insurance commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable, and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the association has complied with all the provisions of law he shall issue to such association a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such association at the date of such
