

already have been granted, he shall at once revoke it and publish the fact of such revocation in one daily newspaper published in the City of Baltimore. The examiner of the insurance department shall be paid by the company whose affairs are examined, his traveling and other expenses, and in addition thereto a sum to be approved by the Commissioner, for each and every day that he shall be engaged in any such examination; and such other person or persons who may be appointed by the Commissioner for any of the purposes mentioned herein shall each be paid by the company whose affairs are examined, their traveling and other expenses, and in addition thereto, a sum to be approved by the Commissioner, for each and every day that he or they are engaged in any such examination; except that the Commissioner may employ one special examiner on any examination that in his judgment may require such employment, who shall be paid by the company whose affairs are examined his traveling and other expenses, and in addition thereto, a sum to be approved by the Commissioner, for each and every day that he is engaged in any such examination; and provided further that any official or employee of the insurance department who shall be directed by the Commissioner to assist in the examination of any company organized and located outside of this State and doing business in this State, shall be paid by such company his traveling and other expenses and such reasonable compensation as shall be fixed by the Commissioner, in addition to the salary paid such official or employee out of the funds of said department. If the per diem and expenses in any case herein provided shall remain unpaid after ten days from the completion of any such examination, the Commissioner may sue therefor. For the purposes of any examination authorized by law, the Commissioner, or the insurance examiner, shall have power and is hereby authorized to summon any person or persons being within this State, and to administer to him or them the proper and necessary oath, and to examine him or them, under oath, in relation to the affairs and conditions of any company. The result of the official examination of any such company may, at the discretion of the Commissioner, be published within thirty days thereafter at the expense of said company in one daily newspaper published in the City of Baltimore in such condensed form as shall show the true condition of the company examined. Should any company organized under the laws of this State refuse to permit its affairs to be examined as herein provided, or refuse free access to its books or papers, or in any manner whatever prevent a thorough examination, the said Commissioner shall proceed against said company in the manner provided in Section 229 of this sub-title.

See sec. 51.

1931, ch. 530, sec. 194.

228. (Production of Books, etc.) No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing any books, papers, contracts, agreements or documents at the trial or hearing of any person or company charged with violating any provisions of this sub-title on the ground that such testimony or evidence may tend to incriminate himself, but no person shall be prosecuted for any act concerning which he shall be compelled so to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except for perjury committed in so testifying.