

but the said costs and fees shall be collected as heretofore and paid to the County Commissioners. The said salaries in the respective counties shall be as hereinafter provided.

1939, ch. 720, sec. 97.

99. (Reimbursement to Counties.) The trial magistrates shall promptly report and remit to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, in accordance with the Motor Vehicle Law, all fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs imposed and collected by them in cases of violation of said law. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall keep separate accounts for each of the trial magistrates in the State. Not later than the fifteenth day of each month, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall remit to the County Commissioners of each County the sum of two dollars ($2.00) for every case of violation of the Motor Vehicle Law in said County during the preceding month, for which accounting or due report has been made by said magistrates, said sums so remitted by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to be applied by the County to the payment of the salaries and other expenses specified in this sub-title.

100. (Number and Salaries.) The number and salaries of the trial magistrates and the places where they shall sit in the several counties shall be as follows:

(Allegany County.) There shall be ten trial magistrates, two of whom shall sit for the trial of cases in the City of Cumberland, two at Frostburg, one at Westernport, one at Lonaconing, one at Mt. Savage, one at Midland, one at Cresaptown and one at Barton. The trial magistrates at Cumberland shall each receive an annual salary of $3,600.00. The trial magistrates at Frostburg, or one of them, shall sit not less than one day or part thereof in each week in Mount Savage and shall each receive an annual salary of $1,200.00. The trial magistrates of Westernport, Lonaconing, Mt. Savage, Midland and Barton shall each receive an annual salary of $600.00, provided that the salaries paid to trial magistrates in Allegany County shall be paid by the County Commissioners and the incorporated towns in the same manner as now prescribed by statute. The trial magistrate at Westernport shall sit not less than one day or part thereof in each week in McCool. At least one of the trial magistrates at Cumberland shall be present in his court room for the trial of cases from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. each day except Sundays and legal holidays, and shall be present at such other times as the said magistrates may decide upon and as may be consistent with the public business.

(Anne Arundel County.) There shall be three trial magistrates, one of whom shall sit in Annapolis and receive an annual salary of $3,000.00; one of whom shall sit in Ferndale and receive an annual salary of $2,500.00; and one of whom shall sit in Galesville and receive an annual salary of $1,500.00.

(Baltimore County.) There shall be fourteen trial magistrates, one of whom shall sit in Catonsville, one in Cockeysville, one in Dundalk, one in Edgemere, one in Essex, one in Fullerton, one in Halethorpe, one in Kingsville, one in Parkton, one in Pikesville, one in Reisterstown, one in Sparrows Point, one in Towson and one in Woodlawn.

The Baltimore County trial magistrates herein provided for shall hold sessions on no less than four days in each week and such other sessions as the duties of their office and public convenience may require.
