

1939, ch. 720, sec. 105.

107. (Trial Rooms.) The County Commissioners of each county shall provide and furnish suitable quarters for the sessions of the trial magistrates. They shall also provide for said magistrates the dockets and stationery required for the proper performance of their duties, except the dockets and report forms to be furnished by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles as herein provided.

1939, ch. 720, sec. 106.

108. (Schedules.) In counties in which trial magistrates are required to sit for the trial of civil and criminal cases in more than one town or locality, they shall establish, maintain and publish schedules for the trial of cases in such places, and said schedules shall be subject to change by said magistrates in their discretion according to the volume of business and the public convenience. The schedules and changes thereof shall be published in such newspapers as the County Commissioners may direct and shall be prominently displayed by posters or placards outside the rooms in which the sessions of said magistrates are to be held.

109. (Powers and Process.) When two trial magistrates are assigned by this sub-title for services in the same town or locality, either of said magistrates shall have authority to try civil or criminal cases originating before or removed to the other magistrate, whenever necessary for the convenient and prompt trial of such cases, and in accordance with the mutual arrangement by said magistrates of their schedules of trials to that end.

Process, executions, or any other writ requiring service upon a person or levy upon property, which may issue from any trial magistrate, may be directed by such trial magistrate to any constable appointed under this sub-title and return thereon shall be made by such constable to the trial magistrate who issues such writ.

110. (Substitute Magistrates.) In addition to the justices of the peace and justices of the peace at large hereinbefore specified, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint one justice of the peace at large for each county of the State who shall be designated "Substitute Trial Magistrate." Such magistrate shall post the bond required of trial magistrates and shall receive a salary of $100.00 per year, except the substitute magistrate appointed for Baltimore County, who shall receive $400.00 per year in addition to the compensation received when actually sitting as a substitute as hereinafter provided.

In the event of the temporary absence or inability of a trial magistrate, the substitute trial magistrate shall serve in his place and stead during the period of his absence or inability, and shall have the same power and authority and be subject to the same duties and responsibilities as the said trial magistrate. He shall receive from the County Commissioners the same pro-rata amount for his compensation and the same expenses as would have been received under this sub-title by the trial magistrate whose absence or inability caused the substitution, and the salary of the trial
