Indictment for illegal sale of whiskey in Wicomico County is not defective because it fails to mention price at which sold and did not state that sale was not made by defendant as employee of County Liquor Control Board. Richardson v. State, 175 Md. 216.

This and other sections of Article repealed certain local laws of Dorchester County. (Art. 10, Sec. 367, 1930 Code Public Local Laws.) Green v. State, 170 Md. 134.

This Article is prohibitory as well as regulatory, so that where license for sale of whiskey is not authorized, as in Dorchester County, such sale is unlawful; indictment in words of statute sufficient. Hayes v. State, 171 Md. 94.

This section held not to apply to Harford County or to repeal local laws of Harford County (Art. 13, Code of Public Local Laws, 1930 Ed.), as to sale of alcoholic beverages. Hill v. State, 174 Md. 148.

Cited in Jackson v. State, Daily Record, Apr. 10, 1939.

Amendment to this section held not to affect pending case, as ch. 775, 1939, did not change requirement as to selling without license or alter the penalty for violation. State v. Cifton, Daily Record, Feb. 6, 1940.
