

1927, ch. 510, sec. 5.

5. No owner, proprietor or manager of any laundry, nor any person employed therein, shall be permitted to sprinkle any article, fabric or other material being washed or laundered in said laundry with water or other liquid substance ejected from the mouth or blown out of any device connecting or coming into contact with the mouth of any such person.

See art. 27, sec. 369.

1927, ch. 510, sec. 6.

6. No person, firm or corporation owning, maintaining, conducting or operating any laundry in which wearing apparel, household linen, towels, bedding or any other fabric or washable materials are received and treated through the process of washing shall remove or cause to be removed from such premises any laundered article until the same has been thoroughly sterilized by keeping it in the washing machine, or other vessel provided for that purpose and the water therein has been brought to a boiling temperature or maintained at a temperature of one hundred and fifty (150) degrees Fahrenheit for at least five (5) minutes; or by subjecting it to live steam under pressure; or by keeping it in a drying house or drying tumbler in which the temperature is not less than two hundred (200) degrees Fahrenheit for a period of not less than five (5) minutes; or by passing it through any ironing machine where the ironing surface is at a temperature of not less than two hundred (200) degrees Fahrenheit; except in the case of silks and woollens or other fabrics or materials which would be injured by the foregoing processes.

1927, ch. 510, sec. 7.

7. No person, firm or corporation operating or maintaining a laundry, nor any employee thereof shall take or receive any fabrics or materials to be washed or laundered from any person, firm or corporation, without the authority of such person, firm, or corporation.

1927, ch. 510, sec. 7A.

8. No person, firm or corporation operating or maintaining a laundry, nor any employee thereof shall operate said laundry or collect wearing apparel or articles of any kind whatsoever to be washed or laundered or deliver the same after having been washed or laundered, between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight and 6 o'clock A. M. of each and every day.

1927, ch. 510, sec. 8.

9. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this Article, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars for each offense.

1927, ch. 510, sec. 9.

10. This Article shall apply only to Baltimore City and Baltimore County.
