

lars ($2.00) to operate motor vehicles other than motorcycles; one dollar ($1.00) to operate motorcycles and bicycles with motor attachments. Such license shall be good until suspended or revoked as hereinafter provided, and shall not be required to be renewed annually. Provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to chauffeurs, but the latter shall be required to obtain an operator's license, as hereinbefore provided, renewable at the end of one year from the date of issue, and shall pay therefor the sum of three dollars ($3.00) per year.

Duplicate licenses shall be supplied by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for fifty cents each in case where he is satisfied the original has been lost. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall have authority, in disputed cases, to determine the kind of license to which any applicant may be entitled.

This section referred to in construing the term "chauffeur" in Sec. 147. State v. Depew, 175 Md. 276.

See notes to sec. 196.

This section referred to in construing sec. 235—see notes thereto. Kelly v. Huber Baking Co., 145 Md. 335.

1937 (Sp. Sess.), ch. 11, sec. 188A.

184. Every person holding a license to operate motor vehicles in this State, as of January 1, 1937, shall be required to apply for and obtain a new license on or before January 1, 1938, and to pay therefor a fee or tax of one dollar ($1.00). Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to chauffeurs. Application for licenses shall be made in writing on forms supplied by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, containing the name and address of the applicant, and such other information as the Commissioner may require. Applications must be signed by the applicant and witnessed, but need not be sworn to. Wilful misstatement of any information required to be furnished in such application shall be deemed a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or by a sentence of not more than six months in jail, or both, in the discretion of the Court. From and after January 1, 1938, all licenses issued prior to January 1, 1937, shall be null and void. All licenses issued under the provisions of this section shall be good until suspended or revoked as hereinafter provided, and shall not be required to be renewed annually. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall remit the fee or tax collected under the provisions of this section without deduction, to the State Comptroller, and who shall deposit the same in the "State Fund for Aid to the Needy", to be disbursed therefrom for the purposes and in the manner prescribed by law.

Suspension or Revocation of Operator's License, Markers and Registration Certificate.
