

An. Code, 1924, sec. 21. 1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 21. 1937, ch. 411, sec. 21.

30. (Two Licenses to Same Person Prohibited.) No more than one license provided by this Article, except by way of renewal, shall be issued to any person, or for the use of any partnership, corporation or unincorporated association, in Baltimore City or any County of the State, and no more than one license shall be issued for the same premises, except as provided in Section 3 and provided that in Baltimore City any person, firm or corporation operating more than one restaurant or hotel or more than one retail drug store on December 5, 1933 shall be entitled to obtain a license for each such place of business upon the filing of a separate application and the payment of a separate fee for each place of business.

Provided that the provisions of Section 30, restricting a licensee to one license, and that no more than one license shall be issued for the same premises, shall not apply to Charles County or Howard County, but in said Counties it shall be lawful for any licensee, by making application in the manner elsewhere described in this Article, to obtain both a beer (on sale) license, or a beer and light wine (on sale) license, and also a beer, wine and liquor (off sale), Class A license, upon compliance with other provisions of this Article, and upon payment of the fees herein prescribed for each class of license.

And provided further, that the holder of any wholesale license may, upon application, as hereinabove provided, apply for and obtain a beer, wine and liquor license, Class A, for a separate place of business from that designated in the wholesaler's license, but where the same person is the holder of both a wholesaler's and a Class A, beer, wine and liquor license, separate books of account shall be kept for each place of business, and the respective licenses shall otherwise be subject to all of the provisions of this Article.

And provided that in Calvert County it shall be lawful for any licensee, by making application in the manner elsewhere described in this Article, to obtain both a beer (on sale) license and also a beer, wine and liquor (off sale), Class A license, upon compliance with the provisions of this Article, and upon the payment of the fees herein prescribed for each class of license.

Every license shall be appropriately numbered by the official issuing the same.

This section does not authorize drug store to obtain renewal of licenses which were transferred to it, with the stores for which issued, after enactment of statute. Liquor Stores Assn. v. Comms., 171 Md. 426.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 22. 1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 22.

31. (Transfer of Licenses.) Any holder of a license under the provisions of this Article, may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location or to sell or assign said license and his stock in trade to another person, provided that application for such transfer or sale shall be made, and the new location or assignee shall be approved as in the case of an original application for such license. Such transfer or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the official issuing the same, upon the payment of a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) in addition to the costs of publication and notice, which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for the transfer or sale; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply in Howard County.

This section does not authorize transfer of licenses to persons denied the right to hold them by Sec. 30 or other sections. Liquor Stores Assn. v. Comms., 171 Md. 426.
