

An. Code, 1924, sec. 23. 1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 23.

32. (Lost Licenses—Duplicates.) Whenever any license issued under the provisions of this Article has been lost or destroyed, the official issuing such a license shall have power, upon application under oath, and upon the payment of a fee of One Dollar ($1.00), to issue another license, upon which shall be endorsed the word "duplicate", in addition to all of the information which appeared upon the original license.

Regulations and Restrictions.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 24. 1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 24. 1939, ch. 775, sec. 24.

33. (Restrictions as to Number of Licenses in Any Community and Prohibited Areas.) The Board of License Commissioners for Baltimore City, and the Board of License Commissioners for any County, respectively, shall have full power and authority by rules and regulations to limit and restrict, in accordance with a definite standard based upon the population to be served, the number of licenses which they shall consider sufficient for any neighborhood, and to divide the city or county, as the case may be, into districts, and prescribe areas in which no licenses may be issued. Any applicant or licensee feeling aggrieved by any limitation, restriction or prohibition imposed by any such Board shall be entitled to appeal as hereinafter provided.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 25. 1933 (Special Sess.), sec. 25. 1939, ch. 775, sec. 25.

34. (General Regulations, Restriction Upon Retail Dealers.) No retail dealer, or other than the holder of a Class E or Class F license, shall purchase any alcoholic beverages except from a duly licensed manufacturer or wholesaler under the provisions of this Article, and no retail dealer shall at any time keep or permit to be kept upon the licensed premises any alcoholic beverages except those so purchased. It shall be unlawful for any person to drink on the licensed premises of any license holder any alcoholic beverages not purchased from the license holder on said premises and not permitted by this Article to be consumed on the premises; and, likewise, it shall be unlawful for any license holder to permit any person to drink any alcoholic beverage not purchased from the said license holder on the premises covered by the license which he holds and not permitted by this Article to be consumed on the premises.

1937, ch. 411. 1939, ch. 398.

35. (General Regulations, Sales to Federal Reservations.) The provisions of this Article shall not be construed to prevent the sale and delivery of alcoholic beverages by manufacturers and wholesalers to persons permitted by proper authority or authorities of the United States to sell alcoholic beverages on a Federal Reservation in this State, for consumption only on the premises where sold, without payment of the taxes provided for in Sections 48 and 49 of this Article.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 26. 1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 26.

36. (General Regulations—Outside Solicitations By Retailers Prohibited.) No retail dealer shall be permitted to employ any solicitor or salesman for the purpose of soliciting, outside of the licensed place of business, orders for the sale of any alcoholic beverages within this State,
