

An. Code, 1924, sec. 54. 1912, sec. 48. 1904, sec. 41. 1894, ch. 562, sec. 6.

56. Said board of visitors when they shall have sufficient funds at their disposal to provide a proper building or buildings and suitably equip the same for the purpose shall establish a department for the care and treatment of epileptic children, and shall be authorized to receive the same upon the same terms and conditions they receive other feeble-minded children, and the said visitors shall have full power and authority to make all necessary rules and regulations to govern the admission of epileptic children and for the control and management of such epileptic department as they shall deem for the best interest of the institution and the welfare of its inmates.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 56. 1912, sec. 50. 1904, sec. 43. 1900, ch. 521, sec. 1.

57. It shall be the duty of the visitors of the Rosewood State Training School to report or cause to be reported to the Board of Mental Hygiene the names of all inmates in said asylum and training school as wards of the State whom they know or have reason to believe to be twenty-one years of age, with such information as said visitors possess as to the age, condition and parentage of such inmates and the place of residence of the parents or other near relatives or friends of such inmates if known.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 57. 1912, sec. 51. 1904, sec. 44. 1900, ch. 521, sec. 2.

58. When the Board of Mental Hygiene receive the report required by the preceding section it shall be the duty of such Board without delay to examine, or cause to be examined, by at least two competent physicians such inmate or inmates with special reference to his, her or their mental condition, and if the members of said Board of Mental Hygiene, after such examination shall have been made, shall be of opinion such inmate so examined is by reason of mental imbecility, idiocy or unsoundness of mind incapable of taking proper care of himself or herself they shall report such fact to the circuit court for Baltimore County with the reason for their opinion therefor.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 58. 1912, sec. 52. 1904, sec. 45. 1900, ch. 521, sec. 3.

59. When the report mentioned in the preceding section shall have been filed in said court, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges thereof to examine the same, and if of the opinion from such report and the reason given therein that the welfare of such inmate would be promoted by his or her remaining longer in the custody and subject to the control of the management of said asylum and training school, said judge or judges shall certify the same, which shall be authority for the retention of the control of such inmate until otherwise ordered.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 59. 1912, sec. 53. 1904, sec. 46. 1894, ch. 562, sec. 2.

60. All legacies now existing or hereafter given by persons dying subsequent to April 6, 1894, and all gifts, grants and devises intended for this corporation but heretofore or hereafter given or made to it in the name of the visitors of the asylum and training school for the feeble-minded of the State of Maryland instead of its name as fixed by section 51 shall inure to the benefit of and vest and remain in the Rosewood State Training School as fully as if given, granted, devised or bequeathed in that name in the first instance.