

An. Code, 1924, sec. 138. 1912, sec. 120. 1906, ch. 711, sec. 118. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 118.

135. The revenues arising from the operation of this sub-title shall be applied in the following manner:

First: To the payment of all expenses and disbursements authorized by this sub-title;

Second: The balance to be paid at the end of each year into the Treasury of the State, to be placed to the credit of, and divided equally between, two special funds, the first to be known as the "Special Road Fund," and the second to be known as a "Fund for the Conservation of Natural Oyster Bars."

An. Code, 1924, sec. 139. 1912, sec. 121. 1906, ch. 711, sec. 119.

136. The Conservation Commission shall annually prepare and publish in pamphlet form a full report of its transactions during the year prior thereto, as well as a statement of the operations of this sub-title, and an account of the receipts and disbursements hereunder. The said report shall also contain a detailed statement of the lands leased under this sub-title, with the names of the lessees. The said Commission shall also in its reports make such recommendations as it may deem proper concerning further legislation or changes in the present oyster laws, and shall present the said reports to the general assembly of Maryland.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 140. 1912, sec. 121A. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119A.

137. It shall be the duty of the Conservation Commission to take such measures as in its judgment shall seem best calculated to increase the productivity of any part of the natural oyster bars defined as such by records and charts filed with the Courts of this State; and the expense of so doing shall be paid out of the "Fund for the Conservation of Natural Oyster Bars," upon requisition made by the Conservation Commission, endorsed by the Comptroller of the State.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 141. 1912, sec. 121B. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119B.

138. Any natural oyster bar or bars, or parts of bar or bars, which the Conservation Commission may designate for the purpose of being cultivated and restored may be exempted by the Conservation Commission from all rights of taking oysters in any manner by any person whatsoever for a period to be specified in a notice of such intention, to be published in local papers thirty days prior to such action; provided, that said published notice shall become void and of no effect at any time during the period of thirty days after the publication of said notice by the filing of a petition with the Conservation Commission signed by twenty-five licensed oystermen entitled to take oysters from the bars or parts of bars designated by the said notice.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 142. 1912, sec. 121C. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119C.

139. For the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon the Conservation Commission by sections 140 and 141, they may employ a superintendent of natural oyster bars, or designate one of the employees of the Conservation Commission to act as such, and it shall be the duty of such superintendent, under direction of the Conservation Commission, to give personal supervision to the work of cultivating and restoring the natural oyster bars designated for that purpose by the order of the Conservation Commission.
