

An. Code, 1924, sec. 143. 1912, sec. 121D. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119D.

140. The Conservation Commission, in addition to taking such measures of conservation of natural oyster bars as in its judgment seems advisable, shall purchase from the lowest responsible bidder, shell or oysters or other material at such places and in such quantities as may be needed for the purpose of restoring the natural oyster bars; and in inviting proposals for such shells or oysters they may prescribe that the shells or oysters shall be delivered at a convenient place for shipment, or they may require that the said shells or oysters be delivered and distributed by the sellers thereof on such particular natural oyster bars, or parts of bars, as the Conservation Commission may be engaged in cultivating and restoring, and the Conservation Commission shall have the power to cause such shells or oysters to be properly distributed on the designated natural oyster bars, or parts of bars, under the direction of the superintendent of natural oyster bars.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 144. 1912, sec. 121E. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119E.

141. For the purpose of discharging the duties imposed upon it by the four preceding sections, the Conservation Commission shall have the same control and direction and be to the same extent over the State Fishery Force, as is given to said Conservation Commission by section 112 of this article.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 145. 1912, sec. 121F. 1912, ch. 539, sec. 119F.

142. The said Conservation Commission shall in no case contract any obligation or incur any indebtedness for the restoring and reselling of natural oyster bars in excess of money at the time of the incurring of said obligation or contracting of said debt in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Fund for Conservation of Natural Oyster Bars."

An. Code, 1924, sec. 146. 1912, sec. 122. 1910, ch. 424, sec. 120 (p. 216).

143. In any indictment for a violation of sections 129 and 130 of this article, or of any other section thereof whereby it may become necessary to describe the location of the particular oyster lot, it shall not be necessary to set forth all the procedure required by law to locate said lot. It shall be sufficient to use a formula substantially to the following effect:

"That A. B., on the ——— day of ———, nineteen hundred and ———, at the county and State aforesaid, being then and there a citizen of ——— county and State of Maryland, did lease, locate and appropriate a certain oyster lot in the waters of the ———, in the county and State aforesaid, for the purpose of planting and cultivating oysters thereon; that said oyster lot was leased, located and appropriated in due form of law, as provided by chapter 711 of the acts of 1906, a plat and written description of which is duly recorded among the oyster lot records of the Conservation Commission of the State of Maryland, and the said lessee has complied with all the conditions and terms of the said lease, as well as the said chapter 711 of the acts of 1906, and the Conservation Commission of Maryland authorizing the same, and has planted oysters and shells within the lines of the said oyster lot located and appropriated as aforesaid: That afterward, to wit, on the ——— day of ———, in the year 19——, in the county and State aforesaid, a certain C. D. from the said oyster lot, located, appropriated and leased
