

for the accounts of other persons shall at any time and from time to time upon written request of the Comptroller report acquisition and disposition of all such alcoholic beverages. The Comptroller shall have power to investigate the sale, purchase, use and transportation of industrial alcohol unfit for beverage use to the extent reasonably necessary to prevent conversion into alcoholic beverages fit for consumption. The Comptroller shall have the power to call upon other administrative departments of the State, county and municipal governments, county and city police departments and upon all prosecuting officers for such information and assistance as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this Article.

1939, ch. 775, sec. 53A.

90. (Penalties.) Any person violating the provisions of this Article for which no penalty, other than the suspension or revocation of a license, is provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or to imprisonment for not more than two years in the House of Correction, or jail, or both fined and imprisoned.

1939, ch. 775, sec. 53B.

91. (False Statements.) If any signed statement, report, affidavit, or oath, required under any of the provisions of this Article, shall contain any false statement, the offender shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to the penalties provided by law for that crime.

1939, ch. 775, sec. 53C.

92. (Fines and Forfeitures.) All fines imposed or recognizances forfeited for any violation of any provision of this Article shall be payable to the County in which the offense was committed, or to Baltimore City if the offense was committed in said City.

1939, ch. 775, sec. 53D.

93. (Jurisdiction.) The several Justices of the Peace in each county of the State shall have jurisdiction, concurrent with the Circuit Court for such County, to hear, try and determine all cases involving any offense under this Article committed within the county. Such jurisdiction shall be exercised in the same manner as the general jurisdiction of such justices conferred by Section 13 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland; provided, however, that every person charged with any offense under this Article shall have the right to a jury trial, if he shall so elect, and the Justice before whom the case is brought shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to trial by jury. This section shall not in any way enlarge the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in Baltimore City.
