

the recommendation, the teacher's certificate shall be revoked and the teacher shall be dropped from the service.

Cited but not construed in Board of Education v. Cearfoss, 165 Md. 183.

Recovery for breach of contract by failure to assign teachers to positions does not relieve the school board of its obligation to make such assignments in the ensuing year when the statutory means of questioning the propriety of their further employment had not been utilized. Board of Education v. Cearfoss, 168 Md. 32.

This section applies to a principal as well as to other teachers. The law does not contemplate any such officer as a principal with duties other than those of a teacher. The duties imposed by this section can be performed only by those actually engaged in teaching. School Commissioners v. Adams, 43 Md. 354.

90. The state superintendent of schools shall keep a full and complete record of the academic preparation, the professional training and teaching experience of each applicant to whom a certificate is issued. He shall keep a complete record of the credentials, certificates or diplomas upon which certificates may have been issued or renewed, and shall keep on file for at least six months all written examination papers. He shall keep a complete record and file of all certificates issued and of all certificates in force. He shall make known to county superintendents the names of teachers holding certificates who are unemployed, but seeking positions, and no provisional certificate may be issued by a county superintendent when it is possible to employ persons holding regularly issued certificates; nor shall persons be employed holding third grade certificates, when it is possible to employ persons holding second grade certificates, nor shall persons be employed holding second grade certificates when it is possible to employ persons holding first grade certificates.

91. Teachers' certificates shall be of two classes: first class and second class. All teachers' certificates issued by the state superintendent of schools shall, when issued, be of the second class, and shall be subject to classification by the county superintendent. The certificates of all the teachers employed shall be classified by the county superintendent, not less than once in two years. In determining the class of the certificate of a particular teacher, the following points are to be considered: (a) Scholarship; (b) executive ability; (c) personality, and (d) teaching power. The county superintendent may add such other requirements as are approved by the superintendent of public education. The county superintendent shall keep a record of the kind, grade and class of certificate held by each teacher employed in the county, and on or before the first day of October each year, he shall submit to the county board of education a list of all the teachers employed, together with the kind, grade and class of their certificates, and a copy of this report shall be transmitted to the state superintendent of schools.
