

of education for adoption, all reports required of that board by the state board of education or the state superintendent of schools, and he shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and submit for approval, to the county board of education, the annual report addressed to the people of the county, provided for in section 59 of this Article.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 150. 1912, sec. 78. 1904, sec. 73. 1888, sec. 67. 1872, ch. 377.
1916, ch. 506, sec. 78.

147. The county superintendent of schools, as secretary and treasurer of the county board of education, shall give bond to the State of Maryland in such penal sum as the board shall determine. Said bond shall have the security of any guaranty, deposit, trust or other similar company duly authorized under the laws of Maryland to act in such capacity. The cost or fee for such security shall be paid by the county board of education, and said bond, when executed, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of the county. The bond shall provide that the secretary and treasurer will faithfully perform the duties of the office and pay over and apply all moneys that shall come to his hand or care as treasurer to such persons and in such manner as said board may, under the provisions of this Article, direct, and that he will keep a full account of all moneys received and paid by him, and all matters relating to the duties of his office and preserve the same, and all vouchers relating thereto, and deliver up all books and vouchers relating to his office to his successor.

Where the treasurer's bond designedly omits from its condition words "under the provisions of this article," the surety is not liable for illegal payments made by authority of board. Howard County v. Hill, 88 Md. 119; State v. Turner, 101 Md. 587.

An. Code, sec. 78A. 1918, ch. 473.

148. The county superintendent of schools as treasurer of the county board of education in the several counties is hereby authorized and directed to deposit daily all public funds and moneys which shall come into his hands for or on account of the public schools, in such bank, banks, or banking institutions in his county which will agree to pay the highest rate of interest, in no case to be less than 2% per annum, compounded semi-annually, upon the daily balances, such bank, banks, or banking institutions to be selected and designated by the county board of education of said county. The interest received on the deposits shall be credited semi-annually to the school funds and become a part of said funds to be accounted for by the superintendent of schools in the same manner as the other school funds.

Chapter 12. The State Normal Schools.¹

An. Code, 1924, sec. 152. 1912, sec. 82. 1904, sec. 77. 1888, sec. 70. 1872, ch. 377.
1898, ch. 406. 1904, ch. 584. 1914, ch. 124. 1916, ch. 506, sec. 82.

149. The state board of education and the state superintendent of schools shall be the board of trustees of each of the normal schools maintained and supported by the State: the state normal school at Towson, the state normal school at Frostburg and the state normal school at Bowie.

In absence of statutory authority, board of trustees of State Normal School cannot be sued by teacher for breach of contract. Williams v. Fitzhugh, 147 Md. 386.
