

(9) Crops or produce of any land in the hands of the producer or his agent.

(10) Provisions and food kept for the use and consumption of the family of the person to whom such provisions and food shall belong.

(11) Five hundred dollars in value of the farming implements of any farmer.

(12) Wearing apparel of any description, except diamonds and other costly jewelry not habitually worn on the person.

(13) Fish while in the possession of fishermen employed in catching, salting and packing the same, or while in the possession of their agents unsold.

(14) Tangible personal property of any domestic corporation having a capital stock divided into shares or of any national bank located in this State, if the shares of stock of such corporation are subject to taxation under the laws of this State, or of any foreign finance corporation doing business in this State, if capital stock of such corporation is subject to taxation under the laws of this State.

(15) Shares of stock in domestic railroad companies, which are subject to taxation upon their gross receipts within this State; and (from State taxes only) the real and personal property of such railroad companies.

(16) Shares of stock in domestic building and homestead associations, to the extent that such shares represent investments in cash, fixtures, loans on hypothecated stock of such association, judgments or decrees of courts of this State, mortgages on real estate situated in this State, and bonds of the United States and the State of Maryland.

(17) Five hundred dollars ($500) in value of household furniture and effects in this State held for the household use of the owner or members of his family, and not held or employed for purposes of profit or in connection with any business, profession or occupation; provided that any County, in the discretion of the County Commissioners, may levy, for County taxation only, upon such household furniture and effects in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) in value.

(18) The ground and buildings for the House of Reformation, the House of Refuge and the Industrial Home for Colored Girls.¹

(19) Personal property, tangible or intangible, of any savings bank, savings institution or corporation organized for receiving deposits of money and paying or crediting interest thereon, and having no capital stock, except shares of stock in any national bank or in any corporation organized under the laws of the State and liable to taxation hereunder.

(20) Shares of preferred stock issued after May 31, 1927, by any domestic electric railroad or street passenger railway corporation which derives not less than sixty-five (65) per centum of its gross receipts (directly or through one or more other corporations organized under the laws of this State) from passenger revenue, and which preferred stock is preferred and limited as to dividends and assets; provided that the property acquired by such corporation with the proceeds of such preferred stock and all other property of such corporation shall be and continue subject to taxation in the same manner and to the same extent as, but to no greater extent than, it would be if all of the stock of such corporation were subject to taxation and fully taxed; and the aggregate value of all shares of stock

¹ These two institutions are now state institutions.