

An. Code, 1924, sec. 265. 1912, sec. 250. 1916, ch. 629, sec. 250. 1929, ch. 226, sec. 174.

183. The County Commissioners of the several counties of the State shall provide by levy an amount sufficient to pay for the expense of assessment of property in their respective counties upon the order of the State Tax Commission.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 266. 1912, sec. 251. 1916, ch. 629, sec. 251. 1929, ch. 226, sec. 175.

184. In the event that any of the several Boards of County Commissioners or the Appeal Tax Court neglect or refuse to include in the levy succeeding the date of notification from the State Tax Commission the amount necessary to reassess property in the particular county the amount of which is in the preceding section provided for, or in the event any of the several Boards of County Commissioners or the Appeal Tax Court shall neglect or fail to follow the instructions of the State Tax Commission, either as to the method or plan of assessment, or failure to appoint assessors as hereinbefore provided, then in that event, the State Tax Commission may institute mandamus proceedings against any such Board of County Commissioners of any county so refusing and a mandamus shall issue compelling any such board to perform the duties herein provided.

As to mandamus, see art. 60.

See note to sec. 30.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 267. 1912, sec. 252. 1916, ch. 629, sec. 252. 1929, ch. 226, sec. 176.

185. Each County Commissioner of a county having three Commissioners shall receive five dollars ($5) per day for actual services rendered in connection with the reassessment of property in their county, and the County Commissioners of the counties having more than three Commissioners shall each receive three dollars ($3) a day for actual services rendered in the assessment of property in their county, except in Prince George's County, wherein each of the five County Commissioners shall receive five dollars ($5) per day for actual services rendered in the assessment of property in Prince George's County, but the State Tax Commission is given the authority to decide how much time is necessary to do this work, and if the Commissioners of any county have not completed their work within that time, then in that event the necessary time to complete it must be done without compensation. The County Commissioners of the several counties in connection with the reassessment of the property in their respective counties, shall have the power to appoint a clerk or clerks in addition to the regular clerk to the board, who shall receive for each day of actual services such compensation as shall be fixed by the County Commissioners. The Counsel to the County Commissioners in their respective counties shall be counsel to the said Commissioners in regard to the reassessment of property in their respective counties, and shall be entitled to a fair and reasonable compensation for services rendered to said County Commissioners, in addition to the salary as counsel to said County Commissioners; all of which compensation for the County Assessors, County Commissioners acting in regard to the reassessment of property in their respective counties, their clerk or clerks and counsel shall be paid by the counties in which said duties are respectively performed, and the accounts for these services rendered shall be approved by the County Commissioners for such county before the same are paid.
