

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 91, sec. 205.

213. (a) That no county of this State shall incur an indebtedness for the purposes as set forth in this sub-title, and under the provisions of this sub-title, in excess of an aggregate amount equal to the total estimated amount which would be raised by a levy of 8¢ on the county tax rate.

(b) That no incorporated town or city of this State shall incur an indebtedness for the purposes as set forth in this sub-title, and under the provisions of this sub-title, in excess of an aggregate amount equal to the total estimated amount which would be raised by a levy of 8¢ on the incorporated city or town tax rate.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 91, sec. 206.

214. (a) The County Commissioners of each county which shall have availed itself of the provisions of this sub-title by borrowing money or incurring indebtedness on its individual faith and credit are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy county taxes of an amount not in excess of 8¢ on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of assessable property subject to county taxes, to be collected according to law in such amount as will repay in full with interest the money borrowed or indebtedness incurred under this sub-title by such county within two years after said indebtedness was incurred.

(b) The taxing body or bodies of each incorporated town or city of this State which shall have availed itself of the provisions of this sub-title by borrowing money or incurring indebtedness on its individual faith and credit are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy town or city taxes of an amount not in excess of 8¢ on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of assessable property, subject to town or city taxes, to be collected according to law, in such amount as will repay in full with interest the money or indebtedness incurred under this sub-title by such town or city, within the period of two years after said indebtedness was incurred.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 91, sec. 207.

215. The administration, expenditure and accounting of all sum or sums raised, borrowed or obtained by any county under the provisions of this sub-title shall be subject to the control of the County Commissioners, or such other public body in the county as the County Commissioners may designate, including the County Welfare Board, or County Civil Works Board now existing, or which may hereafter be created or any similar public body in the county co-operating with the State or Federal Government in the administration of public relief or civil works funds.

That the administration, expenditure and accounting of all sum or sums raised, borrowed or obtained by any incorporated town or city under the provisions of this sub-title shall be subject to the control of the governing body of such incorporated town or city, or such other public body as the governing body may designate.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 91, sec. 208.

216. That this sub-title being enacted to meet an emergency through the police power of the State, is hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and shall be liberally construed.
