1. This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "Unemployment Compensation Law."

This Article cited in construing the tax provision of the Federal Social Security Act. Glenn L. Martin Co. v. U. S., 23 F. Supp. 262.

1936 (Dec. S. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 2.

2. As a guide to the interpretation and application of this Article, the public policy of this State is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this State. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the Legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which now so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and his family. The achievement of social security requires protection against
