

service account" in the unemployment compensation administration fund, and said moneys are hereby made available to the Maryland Reemployment¹ Service to be expended as provided by this section and by said Act of Congress. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining free public employment offices, the Board¹ is authorized to enter into agreements with the Railroad Retirement Board, or any other agency of the United States charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation law, with any political subdivision of this State, or with any private, nonprofit organization, and as a part of any such agreement the Board may accept moneys, services, or quarters as a contribution to the Reemployment Service account.

Unemployment Compensation Administration Fund.

1936 (Dec. sp. sess.), ch. 1, sec. 13. 1939, ch. 278, sec. 13.

13. (a) (Special Fund.) There is hereby created in the State treasury a special fund to be known as the unemployment compensation administration fund. All moneys in this fund shall be expended solely for the purpose of defraying the cost of the administration of this Article, and for no other purpose whatsoever. The fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by this State, and all moneys received from the United States of America, or any agency thereof, including the Social Security Board, The Railroad Retirement Board, and the United States Employment Service, or from any other source, for such purpose. All moneys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed, in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for other special funds in the State treasury. Moneys received from the Railroad Retirement Board as compensation for services or facilities supplied to said Board shall be paid into this fund and the Re-employment Service account thereof, on the same basis as expenditures are made for such services or facilities from such fund and account. Any balances in this fund shall not lapse at any time, but shall be continuously available to the Board for expenditure consistent with this Article. The State treasurer shall give a separate and additional bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the unemployment compensation administration fund in an amount to be fixed by the Board and in a form prescribed by law or approved by the Attorney General. The premiums for such bond and the premiums for the bond covering the unemployment compensation fund under Section 9 of this Article, shall be paid from the moneys in the unemployment compensation administration fund.

(b) (Employment Service Account.) A special "reemployment service account" shall be maintained as a part of the unemployment compensation administration fund for the purposes of maintaining the public employment offices established pursuant to section 12 of this Article and for the purpose of cooperating with the United States Employment Service. There shall be paid into such account the moneys designated in section 12 (b) of this Article, and such moneys as are apportioned for the purposes of this account from any moneys received by this State under title III of the Social Security Act, as amended.
