

by any qualified attorney who is a regular salaried employee of the Board and is designated for this purpose upon recommendation of the Attorney-General.

(b) All criminal actions for violations of any provision of this Article, or of any rules or regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall be prosecuted by the State's Attorneys of the respective counties or of Baltimore City as the case may be, in which the employer has a place of business or the violator resides.

Non-Liability of State.

1936 (Dec. Sp. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 18.

18. Benefits shall be deemed to be due and payable under this Article only to the extent provided in this Article and to the extent that moneys are available therefor to the credit of the unemployment compensation fund, and neither the State nor the Board shall be liable for any amount in excess of such sums.

Definitions.

1936 (Dec. Sp. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 19. 1937, chs. 314 and 527. 1937 (Sp. Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 19. 1939, ch. 278, sec. 19 and ch. 565.

19. As used in this Article, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Board of Review. Whenever the term "Board of Review" is used in this Article it shall mean the Unemployment Compensation Board, as constituted under Section 10 of this Article.

(b) "Benefits" means the money payments payable to an individual, as provided in this Article, with respect to his unemployment.

(c) "Board" means the Unemployment Compensation Board, as constituted under Section 10 of this Article.

(d) "Contributions" means the money payments to the State unemployment compensation fund required by this Article.

(e) "Employing unit" means any individual or type of organization, including any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint stock company, insurance company or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, or the legal representative of a deceased person, which has or subsequent to January 1, 1935, had in its employ one or more individuals performing services for it within this State. All individuals performing services within this State for any employing unit which maintains two or more separate establishments within the State shall be deemed to be employed by a single employing unit for all the purposes of this Article. Whenever any employing unit contracts with or has under it any contractor or sub-contractor for any employment which is part of its usual trade, occupation, profession, or business, unless the employing unit as well as each such contractor or sub-contractor is an employer by reason of Section 19 (f) or Section 8 (c) of this Article, the employing unit shall for all the purposes of this Article be deemed to employ each individual in the employ of each such contractor or sub-contractor for each day during which such individual is engaged in performing such employment; except that each such contractor or sub-contractor who is an employer by reason of Section 19 (f) or Section 8 (c) of this Article shall alone be liable for the contributions measured by wages payable to individuals in his employ, and except that
